

BETTY'S STORE

Written by Magda Cassidy

We sell shirts for sailors
We've got sails for ships
Bottles of rum, you all can come
And fill your tum with fish and chips
Treasure chests and trinkets
Buckets, spades and more
And even if you've lost your crew
You'll find them at Betty's store

Chorus:

What do we say? What do we say?
Heave ho! Haulaway!
You'll find what you're looking for
at Betty's Store today!
What do we say? What do we say?
Heave ho! Haulaway!
You'll find what you're looking for
at Betty's Store today!

Cannons for your cargo
While your boats are at the docks
And Betty knows that every sailor
Needs a pair socks
We'll send the sailors back to sea
With a barrel of moonshine
They say you'll never eat a Cornish Pasty
As good as mine

Chorus

Telescopes and beans on toast
With a cup of tea
Buy a brand new compass if You've dropped yours in the sea!
When you need a place to eat
And a cosy bed to rest
The sailors swear that Betty's
Bed and Breakfast is the best!

Chorus
