

Kindness In A Cup Of Tea

I don't need castles or riches
Why would I when kindness is free?
And whenever you're lost, you can always find
Kindness in a cup of tea

My treasures are my simple pleasures
Take Rags for a walk by the sea
And I will write my own story
Curled up with a nice cup of tea

With the roar of the fire
And the waves of the sea
You can find kindness in a cup of tea
With the chill of the frost
And the wind through the trees
You can find kindness in a cup of tea
There's always kindness in a cup of tea

Some find me strange and that's okay
Others don't understand me
But all I need is my good dog
And a best friend to come round for tea

People may say I am lonely
But I think I'm good company
So who needs the silly old book club
No it isn't my cup of tea

With the roar of the fire
And the waves of the sea
You can find kindness in a cup of tea
With the chill of the frost
And the wind through the trees
You can find kindness in a cup of tea
There's always kindness in a cup of tea

There's always kindness in a cup of tea